

NWEA

— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

PARTNERING FOR STUDENT SUCCESS:

NWEA and Seattle Central College Transitions Center

Who We Serve

- Ages 16 - 29
- Low-Income Students
- Non-Traditional Education Pathways

What We Do

- One-on-One Support
- Education Planning
- Financial Planning
- Connect Students with On-Campus and Community Resources

NWEA: Overview

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

PRE-COLLEGE SUPPORTS

- Support is individualized based on student need
- Timeline and pace of completing tasks is also dependent of student's individual plan and institution deadlines

COLLEGE SUCCESS & RETENTION SUPPORT

Regional Partnerships

NWEA Network

- ❖ Liaison between CBOs and CTCs
- ❖ Students can start with NWEA anywhere and get connected to programs throughout King County
- ❖ NWEA is connected to resources in every region of King County, allowing more accessibility for students to this web of support

NWEA

— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

- Located in Downtown Seattle
- Most densely populated neighborhood in the city
- High cost of living, which can be challenging for students
- High number of community-based organizations and service centers

303 SCC students supported

130 Active college students

57 SCC Graduates

NWEA & Seattle Central College

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

117

Total Students Enrolled

75

Enrolled in Postsecondary

12

Graduated with a Degree or Certificate

48

Actively Enrolled in Program of Study

Seattle Central Transitions Center +
NWEA
2016-2020

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

Partner Site: ABE and ESL Transition Center

Referrals and College Readiness Workshops

Demographics:

- Ages 18-40
- English Language Learners
- Students finishing GED or HS Diploma
- Parents
- Commuters from outside Seattle
- Students experiencing homelessness
- Immigrants and refugees

Transitions Center

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

NWEA

- ❖ Support and follow-up for students in between campus departments
- ❖ Support for students off-campus, including access to community resources

CTC

- ❖ College staff have access to information and shortcuts within the institution
- ❖ Access to on-campus resources, including funding opportunities, program-specific advisors and industry navigators

Students benefit from advocates within and outside of the institution.

Mutual Benefit:
Developing Strong Partnerships with Community and Technical Colleges

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

“My Education Advocate has been there all along the way. They are always contacting me and seeing if I need any help. From finding scholarships, getting help with tutoring, to getting a Washington State I.D, they are always there.”

Nahum Yanez
Former Transition Center Student

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

NW EDUCATION ACCESS PROGRAM RESULTS

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS

3X

NWEA students enrolled in college at triple the rate of comparison sites

7X

Young men of color were seven times more likely to enroll in college if working with NWEA

71%

NWEA students who enrolled in postsecondary programs persisted into year 2 of their program at a rate of 71%

-
- ❖ State Funding for Expansion into Pierce and Snohomish counties
 - ❖ Contracting Directly with Community and Technical Colleges
 - ❖ Regional Promise Scholarships
 - ❖ Partnering to Build College Navigation Capacity at Local Organizations

Scalability and Sustainability: Moving Forward

NWEA
— NORTHWEST —
EDUCATION ACCESS